Regd. C. 18 April, 2013

Dear Vice-Chancellor,

The UGC has taken upon itself the responsibility of development of E-content in 77 subjects at post-graduate level. This initiative has aptly been named as e-PG Pathshala. Under this initiative, the UGC proposes to create high quality material, in four quadrants, in different subjects across all disciplines. This material will be made available to both the teachers and students in the form of Open Online Courses through a Learning Management System (LMS) set up at the INFLIBNET Centre as well as through Sakshat portal.

It hardly needs any mention that such a gigantic task could be accomplished only through a participatory exercise. Accordingly, the UGC solicits the contributions from academic experts belonging to various educational institutions. It is in this backdrop that I am writing this letter to request you to identify and convey to us the list of eminent faculty members who are willing to contribute in this important exercise. I am enclosing the list of subjects identified for this initiative as Annexure-I. The details of the initiative can also be had from web at <http://www.inflibnet.ac.in/epgp>.

Any queries / feedback regarding e-PG Pathshala may kindly be sent to ugc.epgp@gmail.com. Alternately, you may also like to get in touch with Dr. Archana Thakur, Deputy Secretary, UGC, New Delhi (Phone: +11 2323 6977; E-mail: archana.ugc2012@gmail.com) for any further details.

Looking forward to receiving your active participation in this initiative

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Ved Prakash)
